

BELIEVING GOD FOR THE IMPOSSIBLE

What can happen when we believe God for things that seem larger than life....

- Noah believed God for 40 years, building a boat without any sign of rain and facing the scorn of the world – and God used him to save humanity, as we know it today. (Heb. 11:7 & Gen. 6:13 - 8:22))
- Abraham believed God to supply the sacrifice, and God brought salvation to the world through His own Son. (Heb. 11:17 & Gen: 22:1-18)
- Moses' parents believed God to the saving of their son, and ultimately to the saving of the Hebrew nation. (Heb 11:23 & Ex 2:2-3)
- Moses believed God to stand up to Pharaoh, and God delivered the Hebrew people and created them to be a nation of kings and priests unto Him, through whom the Messiah would ultimately come. (Heb. 11:29 & Ex. Ch 5-14)
- Joshua believed God for the victory over enemies much larger and mightier than Israel, resulting in the receiving of their inheritance in the Promised Land. (Heb. 11:30 & the book of Joshua)
- Rahab believed God when the Israelites sacked her city and saved herself and her family. (Heb 11:31)
- Gideon believed God to be with him in battle, and 300 slayed over 100,000. (Judges 8:10)
- Esther trusted God with her very life, to the end of the saving of her people. (Esther 7:1-4, 8:5, 11)
- David believed God to stand against Goliath and conquered Israel's mightiest enemy with one stone. (1st Sam 17:36-50)
- Elijah believed God to the calling down of fire on wet wood and tore down the spiritual strongholds of Baal. (1ST Kings 18:20-40)
- Daniel believed God in the lion's den - to the end that an entire kingdom was converted to worship the one true God. (Dan 6:16-27)
- The apostles believed God to receive power from on high, and 3,000 became believers in one day. (Acts 2:1-41)

Is it too difficult to think that God would be willing to use those who believe Him for it to the turn the financial world upside down and funnel the wealth of the world into the Kingdom of God for the purpose of spreading the gospel and glorifying His name? All things are possible with God! The only condition for receiving His unlimited blessings is faith.
